DELHI COURT RULES IN FAVOR OF ORANA GROUP, PERMANENTLY RESTRAINING "THE ORANA PANIPAT" FROM USING THE MARK "ORANA" FOR BANQUET HALLS.

ORANA
-vs-
THE ORANA PANIPAT

Mr. Surinder Singh and Mr. Amit Verma, advocates, represented ORANA Group, in this matter before the Hon'ble Court

CASE SET UP BY THE PLAINTIFF- ORANA GROUP

The ORANA Group, a pioneer in luxury banqueting and hospitality, filed the lawsuit for trademark infringement, passing off, and damages before the District Court in Rohini, New Delhi, against THE ORANA PANIPAT on the basis of its Registered Trademark ORANA.

The ORANA Group alleged that the Defendant entity through its operators are unlawfully using the mark "ORANA" and are capitalizing on the name by incorporating it into their trade name, THE ORANA PANIPAT for Banquet Hall.

PROCEEDINGS

Despite being duly served by the Court, none appeared on behalf of the Defendant. Noticing this non-appearance, the court proceeded with the case as ex parte against the defendants. The plaintiff then filed an application under Order XIII A for Summary Judgment.

On April 16, 2025, the Hon'ble Court evaluated the issues under Order XIII A of the Code of Civil Procedure (CPC) and determined that the plaintiff's claim against the defendants was sufficiently strong, as the circumstances warranted granting relief.

COURT'S FINDINGS

The Court passed a detailed Judgement wherein a Decree of Permanent Injunction in favor of the plaintiff is passed restraining the defendants from using the mark THE ORANA PANIPAT in any form. The Hon'ble Court also granted punitive damages of Rs. 3 Lac and Rs. 50 Thousand as cost of proceedings to the Plaintiff and against the Defendants.
